1. A grievance shall mean a complaint by an employee(s) (1) that there has been as to him (Them) a violation, misinterpretation or inequitable application of any of the provisions of the agreement or (2) that he (they) has (have) been treated unfairly or inequitably by reason of any act or condition which is contrary to established board policy or administrative practice governing or affecting employees. However, the term "grievance" shall not apply to (a) a method of review prescribed by law or (b) any rule or regulation of the State Commissioner of Education or (c) any by-law of the Board of Education or (d) any matter which according to law is either beyond the scope of the Board authority or limited to unilateral action by the Board alone (e) a complaint of a non-tenure teacher which arises by reason of his not being re-employed (f) or a complaint by any certificated personnel occasioned by appointment to or lack of appointment to, retention in or lack of retention in any position for which tenure is either not possible or not required.

A grievance to be considered under this procedure must be initiated by the employee(s) within five (5) school days of its occurrence. If such grievance is not submitted within the allotted time, it shall be considered waived.

ii. The "custodian organization" recognized by the Board as the official and exclusive representative for the full time employees of this school district shall in all instances be the Little Ferry Custodian Association.

iii. The "Association's Committee on Rights & Grievance" (herein after referred to as the A.R.&G. Committee) shall be composed of three custodian organization members. Selection of this committee shall be made by periodically held elections by the organization membership. The Superintendent of Schools and the President of the Board of Education shall be notified in writing, within three (3) days, of any changes in committee membership. It is the purpose of this committee to determine whether or not an employee's (s) grievance is in fact justifiable.

(c) Procedure

i. Any individual member or group of individuals of the custodial staff shall have the right to present a grievance (as defined in Definitions) to be processed as per following agreement.

ii. In presenting his (their) grievances the member (s) of the staff shall be assured freedom from prejudicial action in presenting his (their) appeal.

iii. The member (s) shall have the right to present his (their) appeal or to designate the A.R.& G Committee to appear with him (them) or for him (them) at any step in his (their) appeal.

Step 1. Any custodial employee (s) who has (have) a grievance shall discuss it first with his (their) principal in an attempt to resolve the matter at that level.

Step 2. If, as a result of the discussion, the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of aggrieved employee (s) within five (5) school days, he (they) shall set forth his (their) complaint in writing to the A.R. & G. Committee for reviewing the grievance. The grievance shall be prepared in the following form:

A. The Nature of the grievance

B. The Nature and extent of the injury, loss or inconvenience.

C. The results of previous discussions

D. His (their) dissatisfaction with decisions previously rendered.

Step 3. The A.R.&G. Committee will, upon reviewing the situation, submit their recommendations in writing within three (3) days to the aggrieved employee (s) and the principal. If the A.R.&G. Committee finds that a valid grievance does not exist, no further actions will be taken. Should, however, the committee decide that the grievance, as submitted, warrants further consideration, the principal will be requested to implement the A.R.&G. Committee's recommendation.

Step 4. If the employee(s) is (are) not satisfied with the principal's decision, he (they) may appeal to the superintendent of schools. The appeal to the superintendent must be made in writing reciting the matter submitted to the principal as specified above and his (their) dissatisfaction with decisions previously rendered. The superintendent shall attempt to resolve the matter as quickly as possible but within a period not to exceed ten (10) school days. The superintendent shall communicate his decision in writing to the employee(s) and the principal.

Step 5. If the grievance is not resolved to the employee's satisfaction, he (they) may request a review by the Board of Education. The request shall be submitted within five (5) school days, in writing, through the superintendent of schools who shall attach all related papers and forward the request to the Board of Education. The Board, or a committee thereof, shall review the grievance and shall, at the option of the Board, hold a hearing with the employee(s) and render a decision in writing within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the grievance by the Board or of the date of the hearing with the employee(s), whichever comes later.

Step 6. If, after Step 5, the aggrieved employee(s) is (are) not satisfied with the disposition of his (their) grievance, he (they) may, within five (5) school days, request in writing, that the A.R.&G. Committee submit the grievance to the Public Employees Relations Commissioner (herein after referred to as PERC). If the A.R.&G Committee determines that the grievance is meritorious, it may submit the grievance to PERC within fifteen (15) school days after receipt of a request by the aggrieved person(s).

Both parties agree to abide by the recommendations of PERC in order to reach an agreeable solution.

7. No reprisals of any kind shall be taken by the Board or by any member of the administration against any party in interest, any building representative, any member of the A.R.&G. Committee, or any other participant in the grievance procedure by reason of such participation.

8. All documents, communications and records dealing with the processing of a grievance shall be filed in a separate grievance file and shall not be kept in the personal file of any of the participants.

9. All meetings and hearings under this procedure shall not be conducted in public and shall include only such parties in interest and their designated or selected representatives heretofore referred to in this Article.

10. HOLIDAYS

There will be nine (9) holidays for the school year 1969-1970. They are as follows:

1. New Years Day

When a holiday falls on a weekend or during a vacation period, the employee(s) shall have the option of a substitute vacation day or one (1) day's pay, whichever said employee(s) elect(s) to take.

11. FRINGE BENEFITS

(b) The employee shall be entitled to two (2) personal days during the school year. The employee must give at least three (3) days notice prior to the taking of the personal day to the Superintendent of Schools of the Borough of Little Ferry. In the event the employee shall only take one day, he shall be entitled to accumulate the second day for the next school year.

(d) If a custodian is absent, ill, on vacation or for any other reason not able to carry out his duty, his work shall be done by another custodian or custodians after his or their normal shift has been completed. Time and one-half shall be paid for this service.

12. This agreement executed on or before July 1, 1969, shall continue in full force and effect until completion of the required school year (as per New Jersey State Law) of 1969-1970.
